

Press Release

Pass Out Veterinary Graduates of SKUAST Jammu Administered Oath

Forty five (45) veterinary graduates of the 2011 Batch of Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences & Technology of Jammu(SKUAST J), took oath of profession at a ceremony held at the Faculty of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry, R.S. Pura. A solemn function to mark the occasion was organized for the pass out BVSc and AH graduates.

The Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Pradeep K. Sharma, who chaired the oath-taking ceremony, congratulated the outgoing veterinary graduates and wished them a bright and prosperous future. He also congratulated them on cracking the national level Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) examination in large number. He shared his heart felt pleasure on knowing that about 90% of pass out students got admitted in PG Programmes in top most institutes of the country. He expressed his happiness when came to know about a few students who are going to start their own entrepreneurship and simultaneously advised them to face all the challenges in the way strongly. He exhorted the students to imbibe each and every word of the oath in their professional life.

The oath was administered by Dr. M.M.S. Zama, the Dean of the Faculty of Veterinary Sciences & Animal Husbandry, while Dr. M.S. Bhadwal, Associate Dean delivered the welcome address. Dean of the Faculty also informed the pass outs that they would be registered with the State Veterinary Council within a few days and also thanked all the officers including the Registrar of the University for facilitating them at every step for the accomplishment of the degree programme in time. The ceremony was attended by Dr. K.S. Risam (Director Extension), Dr. T.A.S. Ganai (Director Education), Dr. Deepak Kher (Project Planning Monitoring Officer) and heads of various divisions of the faculty. The Vote of thanks was presented by Dr. J.S. Soodan the incharge Internship Programme. Some pass out students also shared their feelings and experiences.