

Vice Chancellor SKUAST- Jammu inaugurates First T-10 cricket tournament

Prof. J. P. Sharma, Vice-Chancellor, SKUAST-Jammu and Chief Guest on the occasion inaugurated the First T-10 Vice Chancellor's Tennis Ball Cricket Tournament at Main Campus, SKUAST-Jammu, Chatha. Speaking on the occasion, Prof. J. P. Sharma emphasized the importance of sports in the overall growth and development of the youth. He said that the sports plays a vital role in shaping the overall personality of person by enhancing his competitive skills, health and over all attitude. He further said that apart from this, sports also inculcate team spirit and leadership qualities and also act as medium of relieving stress and anxiety. He appreciated the organising committee for such events and promised that these activities should be carried in future along with the studies and assured that the university would make every possible effort to encourage students' participation in different sports activities organised at local and national level. Four cricket teams of SKUAST-Jammu are participating in the T-10 tournament, during which two matches will be played each day and the tournament will last for four days. Registrar cum Director Research, Prof. Jag Paul Sharma, Dr. S.K Gupta, Director Education, Dr. Rajesh Katoch, Dean Student welfare, Dr. D. P. Abrol, Dean FOA, Dr. S.E.H Rizvi, Dean Basic Sciences, All HOD's of the divisions and other teaching and non Teaching staff were present during the inaugural function. Mr. Kewal Raina (Manager) Mr. Niraj Gupta and Mr. Divyansh Verma are organizing the tournament under the overall supervision of Dean Students Welfare (DSW), SKUAST-Jammu.